When you've been out of work for a long time - or never in it - one of the hardest things is to believe you really can get a job and all the benefits that go with it. At Sarina Russo Job Access we are passionate about helping you develop skills and gain employment, to overcome whatever obstacles you face getting a job and help you to achieve positive change in your life!

Here's how you can join the workforce.

“When you're on benefit for a while, you lose confidence in yourself. It's easy to think you'll never get a job, no matter who tries to help.

So when I registered with Sarina Russo Job Access, it blew me away. They were really nice. I got my own personal Employment Consultant, Daniel. Together, we worked out a job search training plan.

Daniel helped me:

- update my resume and made it look good
- get references
- write job applications
- practice what to say and what to do at a job interview.

Having the support element is very important, and Sarina Russo Job Access were with me from the beginning. Daniel encouraged me to be positive and believe in what I could do and GO for it. That helped my confidence. I didn't have to pay for the training and I also got to use phones, computers, newspapers and photocopiers for free.

Then Daniel got busy matching me with a job vacancy. He was interested in finding jobs that matched my experience. He said that was a Sarina Russo Job Access specialty. Bingo - my resumes, our interview practice and his work paid off. He arranged an interview with Chris from BCI Australia - the guy who's now my boss. That was three months ago. Now I'm learning other jobs, I've got more money in my pocket and I'm getting myself set up for a new life.

How good is that?”
